Faculty Recommender Information

The Summer Fellows program is offered through the Office of the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education and administered by the Undergraduate Research Center–Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences (A334 Murphy Hall). Each Summer Fellow receives a scholarship of $2,000 funded by foundations, industry, and individual donors. More information about the program may be found at: <http://www.ugeducation.ucla.edu/urhass/summerfellows.htm>.

Summer Fellows awards are made to rising UCLA juniors or seniors who: a) demonstrate superb scholarly promise in a humanities or social sciences major, b) are committed to working on a research project with a faculty mentor over the 10-week summer term, and c) are committed to participating in regular program workshops and meetings throughout the summer. The workshops provide training in scholarly communications and professionalism.

In your letter of support, please:

- Confirm that the student has informed you as to whether he/she does or does not waive access to this letter
- Confirm that you have agreed to mentor this Summer Fellows applicant over the 10-week summer session A.
- Address the student's research skills and ability to complete a comprehensive research project.

The letter may be addressed to Dr. Patricia Turner, Dean and Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education

Please send your letter of recommendation no later than May 1st, 2017 to:
